MATRIMONIAL.

J. L. Crane and Miss Zena Arnold, both of Boyle, eloped to Jellico and were married the other night.

Porter Langford, of Taylorsville, Ill., and Miss Maude Bailey, of Maywood, were made one at Rev. R. B. Mahony's, that gentleman yesterday morning.

Mr. William Paris, a nephew of Mrs. Adelia Woods, of this city, was married at Dayton, O., a few days ago to Miss Esie Breemer, a popular young lady of that city.

Ex-Senator and ex-candidate for the Vice Presidency, Henry Gassaway Davis, will not marry the young and blooming Miss Ashford as contemplated. His family made it too hot for him and her and the engagement was called off. It was clearly case of an old fool with money and a young woman anxious to get what the children should have.

Democratic Ticket.

For United States Senator,
J. C. W. BECKHAM.

DR. R. L. DAVISON is a candidate for delegate to the Chicago convention which will nominate a republican candidate for president, and we hope he will win. He is a dyed-in-the-wool republican, a hard worker for his party and deserves recognition. It is no business of ours who shall cast the vote of the Eighth district at Chicago and we can not help him in his race but we would like to see the doctor, who is our townsman and friend, honored.

It is given out at Maysville that either Judge Garrett S. Wall or Squire William H. Rice will be the Democratic candidate for Representative to succeed the late Virgil McKnight and that Elijah C. Kirk will be the Republican candidate. Both the latter are farmers and members of the Equity Society, which will no doubt be the factor in the fight. The temperance question will be passed up for the present.

A WASHINGTON dispatch says that Ex-Senator Joe C. S. Blackburn still looks and acts the part of a young man. The writer might have added, that since his defeat for re-election as Senator, he has played the baby act to perfection.

If the late Virgil McKnight thought that he did right in betraying the trust reposed in him by the democrats of Mason county, may the Lord have mercy on him. We have nothing to say in the premises.

THE KING of England has placed an order for 500 Havana cigars to cost $1,600, or $3.20 each. Smoking comes high but King Edward must indulge in it.

Citizens Petition City Council For Opening of New Street and Give Good Reasons For Their Wishes.

STANFORD, KY., Feb. 20th, 1908.
To the Mayor and City Council of Stanford, Ky.:

We the undersigned citizens of Stanford, Ky., who live on the North side of the Knoxville branch of the L. & N. railroad, hereby petition your honorable body to open a street which shall run from a point on Danville street, approximately opposite the Graded School building, to connect with a street now which ends near the premises of George B. Cooper, and to cause said street when opened to be properly graded and Macadamized.

Our object in making this request is chiefly to offer a convenient way for the school children, whose parents live on the North side, to get to said Graded School building. There are now 95 children of school age who live on the North side, and in going to and returning from school they are forced to travel along Main street and then up Danville street, a long and inconvenient way, making it impracticable for them to leave for dinner at the noon hour; or to travel the railroad track, a distance of several hundred yards, and thus incur a great personal risk; or go through the more undesirable street of Maxville.

We are satisfied that such action on your part will prove of advantage to the public in other respects. There is much hauling from the Danville pike to Lancaster pike and to the depot, which would be deflected from Main street, and thus there would be saved the cost of continual repairs to Main street, which, on account of its situation, entails large expense to keep it in repair.

R. B. Wilkerson, Walter Holtzclaw, W. K. Warner, Will Stone, S. H. Aldridge, W. A. Mobley, J. A. Chappell, J. M. Haley, Sam Murphy, Mrs. Nellie Brady, Mrs. T. J. Good, Mrs. J. L. Hardin, J. M. Meaders, Fred Eichenberger, G. F. Pendleton, R. G. Jones, U. S. Traylor, J. M. Stone, John Downer, Robert L. Davison, W. G. McBee, J. B. Gooch, D. M. J. T. Short will build a large store house on the lot fronting Mrs. Bell Lawhorn's store at Yosemitic. It is understood that Geo. P. Garner will occupy it when completed.

Deputy Sheriff Jack Wells has the mumps and is laid up for repairs. Rev. J. Q. Montgomery was water bound at Yosemitic Friday on his way home from Mt. Olive, where he had been preaching.

Mrs. Eliza Estes, of Somerset, is with Mrs. J. A. Estes. William McWhorter went to Liberty Monday to the trial of Robt. Davis, charged with striking Roy Estes. Rev. W. G. Tilford went to Eubanks Saturday.

John Patterson, a good citizen of the Grove section, died on the 12th inst. of a complication of diseases. Rev. W. G. Tilford held appropriate services at the Grove Baptist church, after which the remains were buried in the new cemetery near the church.

It was suggested to us a few days since, that Gov. Beckham's friends throughout the country ought to petition him to make compromise with the crowd that is opposing him. He is the nominee and it would be little less than robbery to fail to elect him Senator.—Gov. Beckham will never compromise with disonor. Ed.

A CUT in wages affecting every employee of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company will be made March 1, though the details of the plan have not been completed, and the exact amount of the reduction cannot be given out at the present time, says the Louisville Times.

THE following is sent from Scottsville to the Louisville Herald and probably may best be taken with a good supply of salt: Word comes from J. F. Allen, promoter of the Danville and Scottsville Railroad, that part of the system will be ready before 1908 has passed. The distance is 150 miles through the roughest sort of country, and the track will open up the back counties which heretofore have been dependent on Glasgow as the station for other Kentucky points. The road will be built from McKinney to Liberty, to Columbus to Scottsville, and about 30 men are at work at McKinney at present. Allen says that he now has the money necessary to complete the road.

WRAY.—After an illness of nearly a year, Mrs. Mary E. Wray died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. I. M. Bruce, at an early hour Wednesday evening. She was 69 years and up to a few years ago was the picture of health. Deceased was the widow of Mr. James M. Wray, and was Miss Mary Dooley, of Clark county. Five children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Wray: Mrs. Kittie Lynn, Mrs. I. M. Bruce, Mrs. H. C. Baughman, Miss Wray and Mr. Homer C. Wray. Of this number Mesdames Lynn and Baughman preceded their mother to the grave. The other three live in Stanford and are among the town's best citizens. For many years Mrs. Wray had been a devout member of the Presbyterian church and until her infirmities overtook her, her seat was seldom vacant when the church doors were open. She was an exceedingly modest, refined woman and to know her well was to love her. Her children were wrapped up in her and now that she is no more their grief knows no bounds. May He give them comfort and strength to bear their loss. The funeral will occur at the Bruce home at 2:30 this, Friday afternoon. Rev. L. Yandell will officiate and the burial will take place in Buffalo cemetery.

MASQUERADE rink at Walton's Opera House Friday night, Feb. 21. $5 in cash to best maskers.

LAST CALL.—All accounts not paid by March 1, will be placed in an attorney's hands with instructions to bring suit if necessary. Our business must be settled. Cummins & McClary.

LYNN.—Mrs. Jessie C. Lynn died at about 6 o'clock Monday evening after a protracted illness of that dread disease, typhoid fever. She was 34 years old and was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Wood. She is survived by her husband and three little children—Louise, aged eight, Margie, six, and James, only 14 months—three brothers, Messrs. John A. Wood, and W. L. Wood, of Danville, and George T. Wood, of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, and one sister, Mrs. B. G. Fox, of Danville. Great sympathy is felt for them all, but upon the husband and little motherless children the rod of affliction falls heaviest and every heart goes out to them. May He who tempests the wind to the shorn lamb comfort and care for them all in their dark hour. Mrs. Lynn was a gentle, good woman and was a model wife and mother. Her place was at home with the husband and children and there she could always be found. A pity it is that one who had so much to live for and who was doing so much for others should be taken away so early in life, but He knows best and moves in a mysterious way his wonders to perform. Deceased had been a consistent member of the Baptist church since she was 15 and she was thoroughly prepared for the summons—come up higher. A large number of friends accompanied the remains to Buffalo cemetery Wednesday morning, where, after short services by Rev. R. R. Noel and J. Murray Taylor, all that was mortal of the devoted wife and tender mother was laid to rest. Flowers brought by sympathetic loved ones hid the mound that marks her resting place and these with comforting words from the many friends will help the bereaved ones to bear the fearful burden that has befallen them.

FOSTER.—Mr. T. J. Foster died suddenly at midnight Wednesday. He had been in usual health up to about 4 o'clock that afternoon and just brought in some coal, when he complained of feeling ill. Physicians were summoned and everything in their power was done but about 12 o'clock he breathed his last. Mr. Foster was 80 years old and was one of the most prominent men in the county. For many years he was a successful farmer and he amassed quite a fortune. Some 15 years ago he gave up active work and moved to Stanford, where he and his wife had since resided. Mr. Foster was for a long time identified with the church at McCormack's but when he came to this place he moved his membership to the Christian church and had been a faithful attendant at its services. He was a great believer in the Sunday school and was frequently present at the roll call. Mr. Foster had been twice married, his first wife being a Miss Turner, of Clark county. She bore him two children, the surviving one being Mr. Ed T. Foster, of Lexington. The widow he leaves was a Miss Stagg and to them were born three children, Mesdames J. H. McAlister, of Way, Miss., and Thomas Metcalfe, of Boyle, and Mr. John B. Foster, of this section. They made an exceedingly happy family. For a long time Mr. Foster had been identified with the Lincoln County National Bank and was a director when its predecessor, the Deposit Bank of Stanford, was organized in February, 1870. He was a director of the Deposit Bank's successors until a few years ago, when he retired and his son, Mr. John B. Foster, was elected in his stead. While Mr. Foster never loafed—he was too busy a man for that—he could be found almost always either at his Hanging Fork farm, his home or the bank. He made the bank his headquarters for the transaction of such business as might come up. Mr. Foster was a straight-forward, honorable man and a splendid citizen and neighbor. Much sympathy is felt for the aged helpmeet and the children in the loss of a kind and indulgent husband and father. Mrs. McAlister has been telegraphed for and should she come the burial will hardly occur before this afternoon or to-morrow. Rev. D. M. Walker will preach the funeral at the late home and the burial will take place in Buffalo cemetery.

I HAVE just received a line of buggy harness, which is unexcelled in either price or quality. Come in and let us "harness you." Geo. D. Hopper.

A WRIT has been issued for Clyde Estes, who it is claimed, shot at a brakeman when the latter put him off a freight train at Hemp. Estes left soon after and the officer has not had the opportunity of serving the paper.

HON. HARVEY HELM.—It is now expected that Harvey Helm, of the Eighth Kentucky district, will overwhelm the House with a burst of oratory at an early date. Both Ben Johnson and Press Kimball, the other Democratic Representatives from the Bluegrass, have made speeches in the House. Mr. Helm has remained absolutely silent. But it is noticed by his colleagues that he has listened most closely to the speeches of his two brethren who were likewise new to Congressional life, and it is charged that he is holding back for the purpose of "laying it over" them. Mr. Helm, as a lawyer and member of the Legislature and County Attorney, has also had experience in the rough and tumble field of forensic contest, and should make a reputation on the floor. Just now Mr. Helm is devoting close attention to his committee work, especially that of the Committee on Insular Affairs. He attends every session, and is deeply interested in the affairs of the Philippines, with which the committee chiefly deals.—Louisville Times Washington Correspondence.

George H. Macon and Miss Margaret Bell, claiming Rockcastle county as their home, obtained marriage license from Deputy Clerk E. D. Pennington about 4:30 Thursday morning. They left on the Louisville train taking the necessary papers with them.
